

Ecocean is looking to lead or join a consortium for a proposal submission under call topics:

LC-GD-10-2-2020 Behavioral, social and cultural change for the Green Deal

Contact Information

Contact person

Assaf Ariel

Science Officer

asaf@ecoocean.org

972-544912673

www.ecoocean.org

Additional Information

EcoOcean is a non-profit Israeli organization established by the Weil family together with a group of leading scientists and environmentalists in 2002. The organization's mission is to empower people to care for the marine and coastal environment of Israel and the region by research, education and community outreach

Company Overview

- Ecocean is an NGO dedicated to the protection of the marine environment
- Our strategy includes support for research, education & community engagement

Expertise related to the call topic

- Behavioral change activities, including national and local campaigns focusing on marine litter, climate change and the marine environment
- Extensive environmental education experience
- Extensive Community & volunteers engagement

We are looking to partner with

- Behavioral research knowledge and experience
- Marketing and public opinion influence
- Diverse community & authorities connections in different countries

Experience with EU projects

- Ecocean initiated and took an active role in Horizon 2020 Projects TASC MAR and ODYSSEA ; Operates the Blue Flag program in Israel; initiated and operated International marine sciences workshops in Mata and Italy.

Additional Contribution

- Connecting diverse networks in Israel and other countries including: Academia, schools, local municipalities, government, NGOs and communities
- Extensive writing skills and experience in numerous proposals